THE AMILOVA CONCEPT:

A website,
a comic,
a mascot,
a publishing house,

Hello, I am Amilova!

www.amilova.com is a community website dedicated to comics and manga, but also a publishing house that publishes the works of the best artists found on internet!

Readers have the pleasure of participating in the life of the comic and its artists, either by reading and commenting, or by assisting the author through to collaborative translation. By buying eBooks they directly retribute artists with royalties!

Artists have the unique opportunity to spread their work in several languages, reach comic fan communities, and get revenues for their art!

The eBook you will read has been created by the author, contact directly the author to say 'thanks' or if there is any problem with the eBook.

We wish you a pleasant reading, and see you soon on www.amilova.com!
